

Kyle supports the Atlanta metro region market of Xfinity retail stores and is focused on Talent Development of both frontline employees and business leaders. Kyle has been with Comcast for 7 years supporting both Retail Sales and Technical Operations during his tenure. As a passionate supporter of Comcast ERGs, Kyle was the former lead for the Comcast ERG Young Professionals Network for 3 years building its membership to over 1,100 employees within the Big South Region prior to completing his term. Currently, Kyle is one of several co-leads for the newly launched Big South Region LEAP Professional Development Program.

Kyle earned a Master's Degree in Human Resources from Keller Graduate School of Management and completed his bachelor's studies from Southern University-Baton Rouge. Kyle is a proud graduate and supporter of his HBCU! Prior to joining the Comcast & Xfinity family, Kyle's 20+ years of HR experience expands to such organizations as The Home Depot, BellSouth and ProBuild. His experience covers areas such as Labor Relations, Staffing, Talent Management and Organizational Effectiveness.
