

Nikki Evans Bio
January 2022

Nikki Evans believes that work should be a place where we can thrive. She helps leaders and teams identify strengths, see what is getting in the way of success and create actionable plans to get more of what they want. She is on a mission to make workplaces work... better.

Nikki has a 20+ year background in information technology in various leadership roles. She has been coaching full time for the last 4 years. She earned a PCC from the International Coach Federation and the EMCC Global Team Coaching Individual Accreditation (ITCA) along with an MBA from Georgia State University and a BA in Psychology from University of Georgia.